About the game:

Would you let a beautiful girl pass a lonely, boring night in a bar?

Come on! What kind of guy (girl?) are you?

Julia is by the bar, nursing a drink, waiting for you....

Be warned, the best have tried, but she is still bored and alone.

All kind of charmers, casanovas and smooth talkers have taken their chances with Julia, but you seem like the right one.

This is the ultimate graphic pick up adventure.

Meet a beautiful girl, and see if you can talk your way into a kiss, a date, or just her phone number... but be careful, watch what you say or give her because she'll dump you in the blink of an eye.

The game features high-end graphics, an AI engine, and a dialog interface to talk with Julia that provides lots of replay value. Every time you try to charm Julia, it is guaranteed to be a different adventure.
